

AMI (Amazon Machine Image Lab)

- Select the instance of which you want to create an AMI, go to actions click on image and templates and then click on create image, you will get the AMI of your selected instance.

- After creating you can use this image to create another instance with the same config as of the Instance which was used to create image.